THER WAS AT WORK AND JOINED HIM.

Look to see what God says and how He works in the Scriptures.
Make your decisions and evaluate your experiences based on biblical truths.

Malachi 3:6

"I the LORD do not change."

Jesus Is Your Model

During this course and throughout your life, you will have times when you want to respond to situations based on your own experiences or your own wisdom. Such an approach will get you in trouble. This should be your guideline: always go to the Bible and ask the Holy Spirit to reveal the truth of your situation to you. Look to see what God says and how He works in the Scriptures. Make your decisions and evaluate your experiences based on biblical truths.

When you study the Scriptures, do not base your decision on one isolated verse or story. Look to see how God generally works throughout the Scriptures. When you learn how God has consistently related to people throughout history, you can expect Him to work in a similar way with you. Your experience is valid only as it is confirmed in the Scriptures. I never deny anyone's personal experience. I always reserve the right, however, to interpret it according to what I understand from Scripture. At times individuals get upset with me and say, "I don't care what you say. I've experienced this." I kindly respond, "I do not deny your experience, but I question your interpretation of what happened because it is contrary to what I see in God's Word." Our experiences cannot be our guide. Every event in your life must be understood and interpreted by the Scriptures, for the God revealed in Scripture does not change (see Mal. 3:6).

1 Mark the following statements T (true) or F (false).

- a. I can trust my experiences as an effective way to know and follow God.
- b. I should always evaluate my experiences based on the truths I find in God's Word.
- c. I may get a distorted understanding of God if I do not check my experiences against the truths of Scripture.
- d. I can trust God to work in my life similarly to ways I see Him working throughout the Scriptures.

Statements b, c, and d are true. The first statement is false because your experience must be interpreted in light of the Scriptures. Experience alone is not a trustworthy guide. You must be cautious about isolating a single event from the context of Scripture. Instead, observe the way God works throughout the Bible. You will never go wrong if, under the Holy Spirit's instruction, you let the Bible be your guide.

The Bible Is Your Guide

Christians are becoming more and more unfamiliar with the Bible as a guide for the daily living. Consequently, they turn to worldly solutions, programs, and methods that appear to be answers to spiritual problems. I use God's Word as a guide to what should do. Some people say, "Henry, that is not practical." They want me to disregard the Bible and to rely on the world's ways or on personal experience. But as a Christian disciple, I cannot abandon the guidance I find in the Bible. The Bible is my guide for how to relate to God and how to live my life.

How do you let God's Word become your guide? When I seek God's direction, I insist on following the directives I see in His Word. Yesterday's lesson is an example. Does God call people to follow Him without giving them all the details in advance? We know He called Abram to follow that way. Is that pattern consistent in the Scriptures?

2 Read the following Scriptures about Jesus' call for people to follow Him. Write what Jesus told these people to do.

Matthew 4:18-20: _____

Matthew 4:21-22: _____

Matthew 9:9: _____

Acts 9:1-20: _____

In some cases God gave more details than in others. We will look at Moses' call and discover God gave him a bigger picture of the assignment than He usually revealed. In every case, however, the individual had to stay close to God for His daily guidance. For Moses and the children of Israel, God led through a cloud by day and fire by night. For Peter, Andrew, James, John, Matthew, and Saul, God disclosed little detail about their assignments. He basically said, "Follow Me, and I will show you."

What Is God's Will?

When people seek to know and do God's will, many ask the question, What is God's will for my life? One of my seminary professors, Gaines S. Dobbins, used to say, "If you ask the wrong question, you will get the wrong answer." Sometimes we assume every question is legitimate. However, when we ask the wrong question, we may find an answer but remain disoriented to God and His activity. Always check to see whether you have asked the right question before you pursue the answer.

What is God's will for my life? is not the right question. I think the proper question is, What is God's will? Once I know God's will, then I can adjust my life to Him. In other words, what is it God is purposing to accomplish where I am? Once I know what God is doing, then I know what I need to do. The focus needs to be on God, not on my life!

When I want to learn how to know and do God's will, I can find no better model than Jesus' life. During His approximately 33 years on earth, He perfectly completed every assignment the Father gave Him. He never failed to do the will of the Father. He never sinned. Would you like to understand how Jesus came to know and do His Father's will?

3 Read John 5:17,19-20 in the margin and answer the questions.

- Who is always at work? _____
- How much can the Son do by Himself? _____
- What does the Son do? _____
- Why does the Father show the Son what He is doing? _____

Some people read these verses and have difficulty understanding that Jesus Christ was fully God and fully human. Our minds can't fully grasp the truth that Jesus and the Father are one (John 15:9). We will look at their oneness more later. But make no mistake. Jesus is God and He lived on earth in human flesh. In these verses Jesus clearly states how He knew what to do. Jesus watched to see where His Father was at work and joined Him. Jesus' approach to knowing and doing His Father's will can be outlined like this:

The proper question is,
What is God's will?

John 5:17,19-20

¹⁷"My Father is always at his work to this very day, and I, too, am working. ¹⁹I tell you the truth, the Son can do nothing by himself; he can do only what he sees his Father doing, because whatever the Father does the Son also does. ²⁰For the Father loves the Son and shows him all he does. Yes, to your amazement he will show him even greater things than these."

Watch to see where God is working and join Him!

GOD'S WORK

SUMMARY STATEMENTS

The Bible is my guide for faith and practice.

The right question is,
What is God's will?

Watch to see where God is working and join Him.

God is always at work around me.

Jesus' Example

1. The Father has been working right up until now.
2. Now the Father has Me working.
3. I do nothing on My own initiative.
4. I watch to see what the Father is doing.
5. I do what I see the Father doing.
6. The Father loves Me.
7. He shows Me everything He is doing.

This model applies to your life personally and also to your church. It is not a step-by-step approach for knowing and doing God's will. It describes a love relationship through which God accomplishes His purposes. I sum it up this way: watch to see where God is working and join Him!

God Is Always at Work Around You

Right now God is working all around you, as well as in your life. One of the greatest tragedies among God's people is that, although they deeply long to experience God, they are encountering Him day after day but do not recognize Him. By the end of this course, you will have learned many ways to clearly identify God's activity in and around your life. The Holy Spirit and God's Word will instruct you and will help you know when and where God is working. Once you know where He is active, you will adjust your life to join Him in His activity.

You will experience God accomplishing His purposes through your life. When you enter this kind of intimate love relationship with God, you will know and do His will and experience Him in ways you have never known before. You cannot achieve this by following a spiritual formula. Only God can bring you into this kind of relationship.

- 4 Turn to the diagram inside the back cover of this book. Read all seven of the realities of experiencing God. Personalize the first statement and write it below, using me instead of you.

Later this week we will take a closer look at these seven truths.

Review today's lesson. Pray and ask God to identify one or more statements or Scriptures He wants you to understand, learn, or practice. Underline them. Then respond to the following.

What was the most meaningful statement or Scripture you read today?

Reword the statement or Scripture into a prayer of response to God.

What does God want you to do in response to today's study?

Learning to Be a Servant of God

DAY 3

Many Scripture passages describe Jesus as God's Servant. He came as a Servant to accomplish God's will to redeem humanity. Here is what Paul said about Jesus: "Your attitude should be the same as that of Christ Jesus: Who, being in very nature God, did not consider equality with God something to be grasped, but made himself nothing, taking the very nature of a servant, being made in human likeness. And being found in appearance as a man, he humbled himself and became obedient to death—even death on a cross!" (Phil. 2:5-8, emphasis added).

In His instructions to His disciples about servanthood, Jesus (the Son of man) described His own role of service this way: "Whoever wants to become great among you must be your servant, and whoever wants to be first must be your slave—just as the Son of Man did not come to be served, but to serve, and to give his life as a ransom for many" (Matt. 20:26-28, emphasis added). Jesus also identified what our relationship with Him should be like: "As the Father has sent me, I am sending you" (John 20:21).

TO BE A SERVANT OF GOD, YOU MUST BE MOLDABLE AND REMAIN IN THE HAND OF THE MASTER.

- 1 Based on these Scriptures and others you may be familiar with, do you believe you should be God's servant? Yes No
- 2 Have you ever given your best effort to serve God and felt frustrated when nothing lasting resulted from your work? Yes No
- 3 What is a servant? Define servant in your own words. _____

Did your definition sound something like this: "A servant is one who finds out what his master wants him to do and then does it"? The world's concept of a servant is that a servant goes to the master and says, "Master, what do you want me to do?" The master tells him, and the servant goes off by himself and does it. That is not the biblical concept of being a servant of God. Being a servant of God is different from being a servant of a human master. A servant of a human master works for his master. God, however, works through His servants.

Potter and Clay

My understanding of a servant is depicted by the potter and the clay (see Jer. 18:1-6). The clay must do two things:

1. The clay has to be molded. It has to be responsive to the potter so he can make it into an instrument of his choosing.
2. The clay has to remain in the potter's hand. When the potter has finished making the instrument of his choosing, that instrument has no ability to do what it wants. It has to remain in the potter's hand to be effective. Suppose the potter molds the clay into a cup. The cup has to remain in the potter's hands so he can use that cup the way he chooses.

Jeremiah 18:1-6

"This is the word that came to Jeremiah from the Lord: 'Go down to the potter's house, and there I will give you my message.' So I went down to the potter's house, and I saw him working at the wheel. But the pot he was shaping from the clay was marred in his hands; so the potter formed it into another pot, shaping it as seemed best to him. Then the word of the Lord came to me: 'O house of Israel, can I not do with you as this potter does?' declares the Lord. 'Like clay in the hand of the potter, so are you in my hand, O house of Israel.' "

To be God's servant, you must be mold-able and remain in the hand of the Master.

These characteristics are quite different from the world's view of a servant. When you come to God as His servant, He first wants you to allow Him to mold and shape you into the instrument of His choosing. Then He takes your life where He wills and works through it to accomplish His purposes. Just as a cup cannot do anything on its own, you do not have the ability to carry out the Lord's command except to be where He wants you to be.

4 Answer the following questions about being a servant of God.

- a. How much can a servant do by himself or herself? _____
- b. When God works through a servant, how much can that servant do?

- c. What are two things a servant must do to be used by God? _____

To be God's servant, you must be moldable and remain in the hand of the Master. Then the Master will use you, the instrument, as He chooses. The servant can do nothing of Kingdom value alone, just as Jesus said, "The Son can do nothing by himself" (John 5:19) and "Apart from me you can do nothing" (John 15:5). With God working through a servant, however, he or she can do anything God can do. Wow! Unlimited potential! Servanthood requires obedience. Servants must do what they are instructed but must remember it's God who is accomplishing all the work.

If you have been working from the human approach to being a servant, this concept should change your approach to serving God. You do not get your orders and then go out to accomplish them on your own. You relate to God, respond to Him, and adjust your life to Him so that from your relationship with Him, He does what He wants to do through your life. Let's look at how God worked through His servant Elijah.

When Elijah challenged the prophets of Baal (a Canaanite fertility idol) to prove once and for all whose God was the true God, he took a big risk as God's servant.

5 Read 1 Kings 18:15-39 and answer the following questions.

- a. Elijah was God's servant. How many false prophets did he face at Mount Carmel? _____
- b. What test did Elijah propose to prove whose God was the one true God?

- c. What did Elijah do to the altar of the Lord? _____
- d. At whose initiative did Elijah offer this challenge? _____
- e. What did he intend to prove through this experience? _____
- f. How did the people respond? _____
- g. What was God's work in this event? _____
- h. What was Elijah's work in this event? _____

Elijah was outnumbered 850 to 1. If God had not displayed His power by coming in fire and consuming the sacrifice (and altar) as Elijah had proposed, Elijah would have utterly failed. That would have cost him his life. Elijah repaired the altar of the Lord. He had to stay with God and do everything God commanded him to do. He was acting in obedience to God's command, not on his own initiative. He went where God guided him when God told him and did what God instructed him. Then God accomplished His purposes through him. God wanted the people to identify the Lord as the true God. As God worked through His prophet Elijah, that is exactly how the people responded.

Did Elijah or God bring down the fire from heaven? God did. What was Elijah doing? Being obedient. Elijah had no ability to perform the miraculous. When God did something only He could do, all the people knew He was the true God. God convinced people of His powerful presence through His obedient servant.

6 As your study time permits, read the following questions. Try to answer each one before moving to the next one. You may want to jot down some notes on the response lines.

a. What will be the difference between the quality of service and the quantity of lasting results when God is working and when you are working?

b. What are you doing in your life personally and in your church that you know cannot be accomplished unless God intervenes?

c. What are we doing in our lives and in our churches that could be done without reference to God at all? _____

d. Why do you think we often experience meager lasting fruit from our efforts?

Don't Just Do Something

We are a doing people. We always want to be doing something. Every now and then someone will exclaim, "Don't just stand there; do something!"

In contrast, I think God is crying out to us, "Don't just do something. Stand there! Enter a love relationship with Me. Get to know Me. Adjust your life to Me. Let Me love you and reveal Myself through you to a watching world." A time will come when doing will be called for, but we cannot skip the relationship. The relationship with God must come first.

Jesus said, "I am the vine; you are the branches. If a man remains in me and I in him, he will bear much fruit; apart from me you can do nothing" (John 15:5). Do you believe Him? Without Him you can do nothing. He means that.

7 Turn to the diagram inside the back cover. Read again all seven realities listed there. Personalize the last (seventh) reality and write it below, using I and me instead of you. _____

"Don't just do something.
Stand there!"

SUMMARY STATEMENTS

To be a servant of God,
I must be moldable and remain in the Master's hand.

Apart from God I can do nothing.

God can do anything through me.

When I find out where the Master is working, then I know that is where I need to be.

I come to know God by experience as I obey Him, and He accomplishes His work through me.

God wants you to come to a greater knowledge of Him by experience. He wants to develop a growing, deepening love relationship with you. He wants to involve you in His Kingdom purposes. He wants to accomplish His will through you.

Do you want to be a servant of God? Find out what is on the Master's heart. Discover where the Master is working; that is where you need to be. Find out what the Master is doing; that is what you need to do. Jesus said, "Whoever serves me must follow me; and where I am, my servant also will be. My Father will honor the one who serves me" (John 12:26).

Disbanding Church Revitalized

A church in an inner city had suffered years of decline as its neighborhood transitioned and church members moved to the suburbs. When only a remnant was left, they concluded they should disband their church. As a final activity the members decided to study Experiencing God. At the conclusion of the study, they would close the church doors for the last time. At the beginning of the course, the people learned that God is always at work around them. They chuckled at the thought, since nothing unusual had happened in their church for years. Nevertheless, they decided to watch during the week to see where God might be working.

That week an apartment manager approached a church member and asked if her church could do anything about all the kids in the apartment block with nothing to do. He offered the free use of the apartment's common room if the church would provide activities. The church decided to offer a children's program during the final few months of its existence. This soon brought several unwed mothers to their attention. Then some drug addicts were attracted to the church, as well as some gang members. Before this little group of people realized what was happening, they had launched several new ministries and were seeing people come to faith in Christ almost every week. At the close of the 13-week study, instead of disbanding, the church, now revitalized, began to minister powerfully to its community. Rather than remaining discouraged, the people realized they were in the center of God's activity. He had been working in their community all along.

God Works Through His Servants, Part I

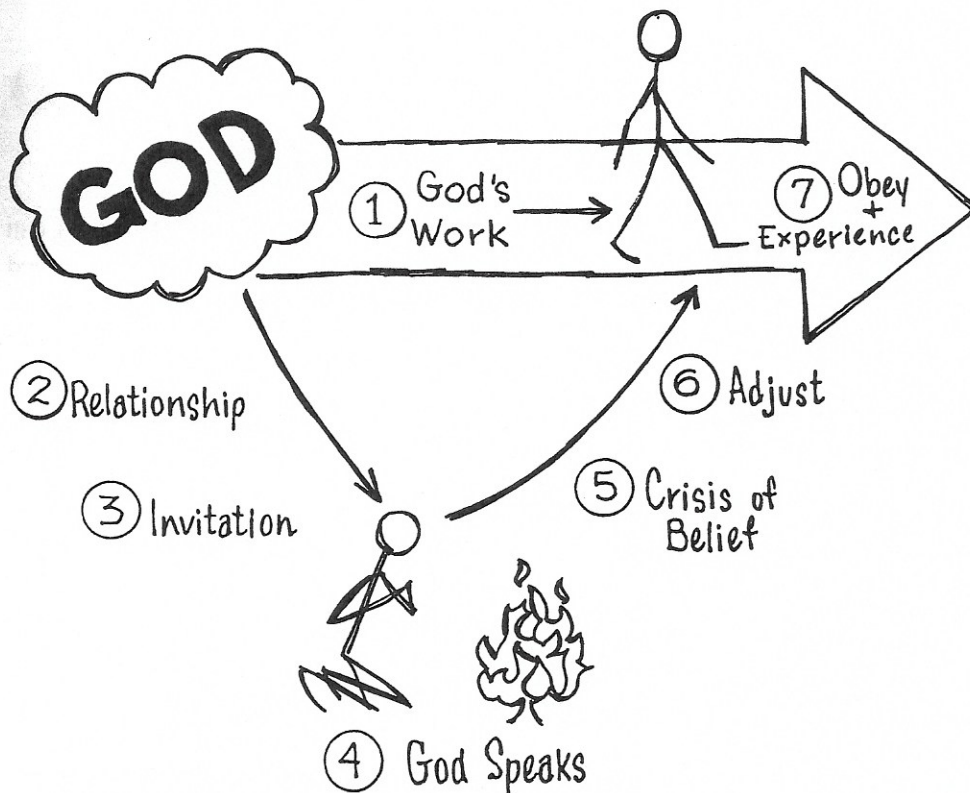

DAY 4

We often act as though God tells us what He wants us to do and then sends us off by ourselves to try and do it. Then anytime we need Him, we can call on Him, and He comes to help us. That is not the biblical picture. When God is about to do something, He reveals it to His people. He wants to accomplish His work through His people or His servant.

When God is about to do something through you, He has to get you from where you are to where He is, so He tells you what He is doing. (Later, I will help you understand how you can clearly know when God is speaking to you.) When you know what God is doing, then you know what you need to do: you need to join Him. The moment you know God is doing something where you are, your life and its activity will be thrown in contrast to God and His activity. You cannot stay the way you are and go with God.

Seven Realities of Experiencing God

The illustration below (and inside the back cover) summarizes the way you should respond to God's initiative in your life. The text of the realities is in the margin.

YOU CANNOT STAY
THE WAY YOU ARE AND GO WITH GOD.

1. God is always at work around you.
2. God pursues a continuing love relationship with you that is real and personal.
3. God invites you to become involved with Him in His work.
4. God speaks by the Holy Spirit through the Bible, prayer, circumstances, and the church to reveal Himself, His purposes, and His ways.
5. God's invitation for you to work with Him always leads you to a crisis of belief that requires faith and action.
6. You must make major adjustments in your life to join God in what He is doing.
7. You come to know God by experience as you obey Him, and He accomplishes His work through you.

1 Complete the following to begin learning the seven realities. Use the text of the realities in the margin on page 21.

- a. Underline key words or phrases that help you recall the seven realities.
- b. Write the key words or phrases on the following lines. _____

- c. Slowly read each reality. Write in the margin questions about any of the realities you do not fully understand.
- d. Using only the words or phrases you recorded, see if you can mentally summarize all seven realities. Review before moving to the next question.
- e. On a separate sheet of paper, try writing each of the seven realities from memory. They do not have to be word for word, but they should cover the important information. Start with your key words or phrases if that helps.

Most of this course will focus on one or more of these realities to help you understand them more completely. You may notice that I frequently repeat different aspects of this cycle. I use the repetition in different situations to help you learn how you can respond to God's activity in your life.

In the assignment above, you could have selected various words or phrases. Yours may be different, but I chose God/work, love relationship, involved with Him, God speaks, crisis of belief, adjustments, obey. You may have asked questions like these:

- What is involved in a love relationship with God?
- How can I know when God is speaking?
- How do I know where God is at work?
- What kinds of adjustments does God require me to make?
- What is the difference between adjustment and obedience?

As I've worked with people in many settings, I've been asked questions like these. I will answer as many questions as possible during the remaining units of this course. Richard and I will address other issues in the DVD messages that accompany this course.

We can identify three similarities in the lives of Bible characters through whom God worked:

1. When God spoke, they knew it was God.
2. They knew what God was saying.
3. They knew what they were to do in response.

Wouldn't you like for your walk with God to be such that He worked through you that way? He wants to move you into that kind of relationship. I trust this course will help you grow in your understanding of God.

Moses' call and ministry are good examples of the way God worked with people in the Bible. Exodus 2-4 describes his early life and call to ministry. Other passages of Scripture also help us see how Moses came to know and follow God's will. Using the seven realities, let's look at Moses' call and response. (You may want to read Ex. 2-4 first.)

Reality 1. God was already at work around Moses.

“The Israelites groaned in their slavery and cried out, and their cry for help because of their slavery went up to God. God heard their groaning and he remembered his covenant with Abraham, with Isaac and with Jacob. So God looked on the Israelites and was concerned about them” (Ex. 2:23-25).

Reality 2. God pursued a continuing love relationship with Moses that was real and personal. God took the initiative to come to Moses and initiate a love relationship with him at the burning bush. God told Moses He would go with him into Egypt. Many texts throughout Exodus, Leviticus, Numbers, and Deuteronomy illustrate the way God pursued a continuing love relationship with Moses. Here is one example:

“The LORD said to Moses, ‘Come up to me on the mountain and stay here, and I will give you the tablets of stone, with the law and commands I have written for their instruction.’ When Moses went up on the mountain, the cloud covered it, and the glory of the LORD settled on Mount Sinai. Moses entered the cloud as he went on up the mountain. And he stayed on the mountain forty days and forty nights” (Ex. 24:12,15-16,18).

Reality 3. God invited Moses to become involved with Him in His work.

“I have come down to rescue them [the Israelites] from the hand of the Egyptians and to bring them up out of that land into a good and spacious land. So now, go. I am sending you to Pharaoh to bring my people the Israelites out of Egypt” (Ex. 3:8,10).

2 Answer the following questions about the three preceding statements.

- a. Reality 1: What was God already doing for Israel? _____
- b. Reality 2: What evidence demonstrates God wanted a real and personal relationship with Moses? _____
- c. Reality 3: How did God want to involve Moses in the work He was already doing? _____

(1) God had a purpose He was accomplishing in Moses' world. Even though Moses was an exile in the desert, he was on God's schedule, in the fullness of God's timing, in the middle of God's will. When God was about to deliver the children of Israel, the important factor was not God's will for Moses. The critical truth was God's will for Israel. (2) God's purpose was to deliver the children of Israel. Moses was the one through whom God wanted to work to accomplish His purposes. (3) Time and again God invited Moses to talk with Him and to be with Him. God initiated and maintained a growing relationship with Moses. This relationship was based on love, and God daily fulfilled His purposes through His friend Moses. (For other examples of the love relationship, see Ex. 33:7-34:10; Num. 12:6-8.)

Whenever God prepares to do something, He reveals to a person or His people what He is going to do (see Amos 3:7). God accomplishes His work through His people. This is the way God will work with you. The Bible is designed to help you understand God's ways. Then when God starts to act in that manner you will recognize that it is He who is working.

Amos 3:7

“Surely the Sovereign LORD does nothing without revealing his plan to his servants the prophets.”

This is a two-part lesson, so we will continue with statement 4. The two-part lesson will be summarized at the end of day 5.

Review today's lesson. Pray and ask God to identify one or more statements or Scripture you want to understand, learn, or practice. Underline them. Then respond to the following questions.

What was the most meaningful statement or Scripture you read today?

Reword the statement or Scripture into a prayer of response to God.

What does God want you to do in response to today's lesson?

GOD REVEALS WHAT HE IS ABOUT TO DO. THAT REVELATION BECOMES AN INVITATION TO JOIN HIM.

God Works Through His Servants, Part 1

Yesterday you studied the first three realities of God's working with His people. Today you will study the fourth reality.

Reality 4. God spoke to reveal Himself, His purposes, and His will.

"There the angel of the LORD appeared to him in flames of fire within a bush. ... God called to him from within the bush and said, 'Moses, Moses!' And Moses said, 'Here I am.'"

"Do not come any closer," God said. "Take off your sandals, for the place where you are standing is holy ground." Then he said, "I am the God of your father, the God of Abraham, the God of Isaac and the God of Jacob."

"The LORD said, 'I have indeed seen the misery of my people in Egypt. I have heard them crying out because of their slave drivers, and I am concerned about their suffering. So I have come down to rescue them from the hand of the Egyptians and to bring them up out of that land into a good and spacious land.'"

"When a prophet of the LORD is among you, I reveal myself to him in visions, I speak to him in dreams, I appear to him in a vision, I speak to him in a dream. But this is not true of my servant Moses; he is faithful in all my house. With him I speak face to face" (Num. 12:6-8).

Reality 5. God's invitation for Moses to work with Him led to a crisis of belief that required faith and action. Moses expressed a crisis of belief when he made the following statements to God.

"Who am I, that I should go to Pharaoh and bring the Israelites out of Egypt?"

"Suppose I go to the Israelites and say to them, 'The God of your fathers has sent me to you,' and they ask me, 'What is his name?' Then what shall I tell them?"

"What if they do not believe me or listen to me and say, 'The LORD did not appear to you'?"

"O Lord, I have never been eloquent, neither in the past nor since you have spoken to your servant. I am slow of speech and tongue."

"O Lord, please send someone else to do it" (Ex. 3:11,13; 4:1,10,13).

Reality 6. Moses had to make major adjustments in his life to join God in what He was doing. Moses' crisis called for faith and action.

"By faith Moses, when he had grown up, refused to be known as the son of Pharaoh's daughter. He chose to be mistreated along with the people of God rather than to enjoy the pleasures of sin for a short time. . . . By faith he left Egypt, not fearing the king's anger; he persevered because he saw him who is invisible. By faith he kept the Passover and the sprinkling of blood, so that the destroyer of the firstborn would not touch the firstborn of Israel. By faith the people passed through the Red Sea as on dry land; but when the Egyptians tried to do so, they were drowned" (Heb. 11:24-29).

"The LORD had said to Moses in Midian, 'Go back to Egypt, for all the men who wanted to kill you are dead.' So Moses took his wife and sons, put them on a donkey and started back to Egypt" (Ex. 4:19-20).

Reality 7. Moses came to know God by experience as he obeyed God, and God accomplished His work through Moses. Many texts throughout Exodus, Leviticus, Numbers, and Deuteronomy illustrate how God revealed His nature and His purposes to Moses. As Moses obeyed God, God accomplished through Moses what Moses could not do in his own strength. Here is one example in which Moses and the people came to know God as their Deliverer.

"Then the LORD said to Moses, 'Why are you crying out to me? Tell the Israelites to move on. Raise your staff and stretch out your hand over the sea to divide the water so that the Israelites can go through the sea on dry ground. I will harden the hearts of the Egyptians so that they will go in after them. And I will gain glory through Pharaoh and all his army. . . .'

"Then Moses stretched out his hand over the sea, and all that night the LORD drove the sea back with a strong east wind and turned it into dry land. The waters were divided, and the Israelites went through the sea on dry ground, with a wall of water on their right and on their left. The Egyptians pursued them.

"Then the LORD said to Moses, 'Stretch out your hand over the sea so that the waters may flow back over the Egyptians and their chariots and horsemen.' Moses stretched out his hand over the sea, and at daybreak the sea went back to its place.

"But the Israelites went through the sea on dry ground, with a wall of water on their right and on their left. That day the LORD saved Israel from the hands of the Egyptians, and Israel saw the Egyptians lying dead on the shore. And when the Israelites saw the great power the LORD displayed against the Egyptians, the people feared the LORD and put their trust in him and in Moses his servant" (Ex. 14:15-17,21-23,26-27,29-31).

1 Answer the following questions about the last four realities.

a. Reality 4: What did God reveal about Himself, His purposes, and His ways?

b. Reality 5: What did Moses have trouble believing about God? _____

c. Reality 5: How would you summarize Moses' faith as it is described in Hebrews 11? _____

d. Reality 6: What adjustments did Moses have to make? _____

e. Reality 7: How do you think Moses felt when God delivered the Israelites through him? _____

God reveals what He is about to do. That revelation becomes an invitation to join Him. (4) God talked to Moses about His will. God wanted Moses to go to Egypt to be His instrument to deliver the Israelites from their bondage. God revealed to Moses His holiness, His mercy, His power, His name, and His purpose to keep His promise to Abraham and to give Israel the promised land. (5) Moses offered many objections. He questioned whether God could do such a great work through someone like him (see Ex. 3:11), whether the Israelites would believe God had appeared to him (see Ex. 4:1), and whether he was capable of speaking eloquently enough to accomplish the task (see Ex. 4:10). In each case Moses was really doubting God more than himself. Moses faced a crisis of belief: is God really able to do what He says? (5) Moses' faith is described in Hebrews, however, as a model of self-sacrifice and trust in almighty God. Once God let Moses know what He was about to do, that revelation became Moses' invitation to join Him. (6) Moses made the necessary adjustments to orient his life to God. Moses had to come to the place where he believed God could do everything He said He would do. Then he had to leave his job and in-laws and move to Egypt. After making these adjustments, he was in a position to obey God. That did not mean he was going to do something all by himself for God. It meant he was going to be where God was working so God would do what He had purposed to do in the first place. Moses was a servant who was moldable, and he remained at God's disposal to be used as God chose. God accomplished His purposes through him. When God does a God-sized work through your life, you will be humbled before Him. (7) Moses must have felt unworthy to be used in such a significant way. Moses obeyed and did everything God told him. Then God accomplished through Moses all He intended. Every step of obedience brought Moses (and Israel) to a greater knowledge of God (see Ex. 6:1-8).

What Can One Ordinary Person Do?

A wonderful Scripture that has helped me at this point is “Elijah was a man just like us. He prayed earnestly that it would not rain, and it did not rain on the land for three and a half years. Again he prayed, and the heavens gave rain, and the earth produced its crops” (Jas. 5:17-18). Elijah was an ordinary man just like us. He prayed, and God responded powerfully.

When God healed the crippled beggar through Peter, Peter and John were called before the Sanhedrin (the highest Jewish court in the land) to give an account of their actions. Filled with the Holy Spirit, Peter boldly spoke to the religious leaders. Notice the leaders’ response: “When they saw the courage of Peter and John and realized that they were unschooled, ordinary men, they were astonished and they took note that these men had been with Jesus” (Acts 4:13, emphasis added).

The people you generally see in the Scriptures were ordinary. Their relationships with God and the activity of God made them extraordinary. Did you notice this statement: the leaders recognized Peter and John “had been with Jesus”? Anyone who takes the time to enter an intimate relationship with God can see Him do extraordinary things through his or her life.

Dwight L. Moody was a poorly educated, unordained shoe salesman who felt God’s call to preach the gospel. Early one morning he and some friends gathered for prayer, confession, and consecration. They heard Henry Varley say, “The world has yet to see what God can do with and for and through and in a man who is fully and wholly consecrated to Him.”

Moody was deeply moved by those words. Later he listened to the great preacher Charles H. Spurgeon. Moody thought:

“The world had yet to see! with and for and through and in! A man!”
Varley meant any man! Varley didn’t say he had to be educated, or brilliant, or anything else! Just a man! Well, by the Holy Spirit in him, he’d [Moody] be one of those men. And then suddenly, in that high gallery, he saw something he’d never realized before,—it was not Mr. Spurgeon, after all, who was doing that work: it was God. And if God could use Mr. Spurgeon, why should He not use the rest of us, and why should we not all just lay ourselves at the Master’s feet, and say to Him, “Send me! use me!”

Dwight L. Moody was an ordinary person who sought to be fully and wholly consecrated to Christ. One ordinary Christian in the hand of almighty God can do anything God commands. Through this one common life God began to do the extraordinary. Moody became one of the greatest evangelists of modern times. He preached in revival services across Britain and America, where thousands and thousands came to Christ.

2 Could God work in extraordinary ways through your life to accomplish significant things for His kingdom? Yes No

You might say, “I’m not a D. L. Moody.” You don’t have to be. God doesn’t want you to be a D. L. Moody. God wants you to be you and to let Him do through you whatever He chooses. When you believe nothing significant can happen through you, you have said more about your belief in God than you have declared about yourself. You have said that God is incapable of doing anything significant through you. The truth is, He is able to do anything He pleases with one ordinary person who is fully consecrated to Him. Would you be willing to make yourself available to Him? Do it!

“The world has yet to see what God can do with and for and through and in a man who is fully and wholly consecrated to Him.”

When you believe nothing significant can happen through you, you have said more about your belief in God than you have declared about yourself.

God's Standards Are Different from Ours

Don't be surprised that God's standards of excellence are different than the world's. How long was the public ministry of John the Baptist? Perhaps six months. What was Jesus' estimate of John's life? Jesus said, "I tell you, among those born of women there is no one greater than John" (Luke 7:28). None greater! John had six months wholly yielded to God, and the Son of God declared that his contribution to the kingdom of God was unsurpassed.

Don't measure your life by the world's standards. Many denominations are doing it. Many pastors and churches are doing it. Think about it. By the world's standards, a person or a church may look pretty good yet, in God's sight, be utterly detestable. Similarly, a person or a church may be wholly yielded to God and pleasing to Him yet be insignificant in the world's eyes. Could a pastor who faithfully serves where God placed him in a small, rural community be pleasing to the Lord? Certainly, if that is where God placed him. God will look for and reward faithfulness, whether the person has been given responsibility for little or much.

God delights in using ordinary people to accomplish His purposes. Paul said God deliberately seeks the weak things and the despised things because from them He receives the greatest glory (see 1 Cor. 1:26-31). Then everyone knows only God could have done something through them. If you feel weak, limited, or ordinary, you are the best material through which God works.
